Escape to your own off-grid retreat on 1.59 acres with a creek and trail leading to the Sauk River. Ideal for a getaway, campout, or gatherings, this property offers space to roam and play. The partially furnished cabin features a spacious kitchen with an eating bar, propane-powered stove, lights, and heater, plus a cozy wood stove. Find a downstairs bedroom and a huge loft area upstairs—perfect for extra sleeping space or a game/hobby room. A wrap-a-round porch frames stunning views of Mt. Forgotten. While there's no bathroom or running water, outbuildings include a barn/garage, shed, and a vintage RV plus a pit outhouse, and shower house space that can be improved—embracing the simplicity of rustic living. Adventure and tranquility await!
